

Virginia Association of Licensed Veterinary Technicians
Announces
The Jenn Fay Memorial
Veterinary Technology Student of the Year Award

The Purpose of The Jennifer Fay Memorial Veterinary Technology Student of the Year Award is to recognize one graduating student from each Veterinary Technology class at Northern Virginia Community College who shows outstanding dedication to the profession of Veterinary Technology. This student has demonstrated a great deal of compassion toward animals and a high degree of understanding and support for the attachment between people and their pets. He/she is highly respected by his/her peers and exhibits a strong sense of professional ethics and a commitment to promoting the science of Veterinary Medicine and Veterinary Technology.

This award is named in memory of Jennifer Fay, LVT, a 2005 graduate of NVCC who dedicated her life to animals through her work with the Animal Welfare League of Alexandria, volunteering with animal rescue in Louisiana in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, and her work in veterinary practice, where she made special effort to mentor students, new technicians, and educate clients. She was an advocate for our profession, and an active member of the VALVT. Jennifer leaves a legacy of compassion and commitment to be modeled by those entering the profession of Veterinary Technology.
