

Virginia Association of Licensed Veterinary Technicians
Announces
The Ursula Strider Memorial
Veterinary Technology Student of the Year Award

The Purpose of The Ursula Strider Memorial Veterinary Technology Student of the Year Award is to recognize one graduating student from each Veterinary Technology class at Blue Ridge Community College who shows outstanding dedication to the profession of Veterinary Technology. This student has demonstrated a great deal of compassion toward animals and a high degree of understanding and support for the attachment between people and their pets. He/she is highly respected by his/her peers and exhibits a strong sense of professional ethics and a commitment to promoting the science of Veterinary Medicine and Veterinary Technology.

This award is named in memory of Ursula Strider, LVT, a 1993 graduate of BRCC who dedicated her life to animals through her tireless volunteer efforts at animal shelters and rescue organizations, as a mentor for canine assistance and obedience training, and her work in veterinary practice. Ursula leaves a legacy of compassion and commitment to be modeled by those entering the profession of Veterinary Technology.
